INTRODUCTION

The Claridge began as a residential condominium offering oceanfront luxury high-rise residential units for sale in 1973. In the ensuing forty-two years, many changes and amendments have been made to the governing documents of the building including the Declaration, By-Laws, and Articles of Incorporation of the association. Many changes also were made to THE RULES WE LIVE BY during those years, and a revised, updated version is also included with this book.

Some provisions of all three governing documents make reference to a ninety-nine year recreational lease connected with the non-residential areas of the Claridge property. The lease property was purchased by the Claridge Association in 1979, and the lease no longer exists. A mortgage connected with the lease-purchase was fully satisfied by the Claridge Association in 2003 (See Recorded Satisfaction of Mortgage CFN# 102923109 in Book 35166 page 720). The articles have not been changed because an owners vote would be required for each reference to the lease.

The Owners Document Book is intended to replace all existing document books previously given to you at the time of purchase of your condominium unit. Amendment changes have been incorporated into the language of the article amended. The loose-leaf format is intended to provide a convenient means of replacement for future amendments to our documents and rules.

We encourage all owners to familiarize yourselves with these documents and rules. The Board of Directors is charged with the responsibility of upholding and enforcing all provisions of these documents, and exceptions are not permitted under Florida State Law.

This book was prepared and printed at considerable expense to your association. Please keep it in a safe and accessible place. If you sell your Claridge Unit, this book must be passed on to the new owner to avoid a charge for a new copy.

Best Regards,
THE CLARIDGE OF POMPANO CONDOMINIUM, INC.

(7) Sharing common expenses and surplus. Each apartment owner shall be liable for a proportionate share of the common expenses and entitled to ownership in a share of the common surplus, such share being equal to the undivided share said owner's apartment bears in the common elements which is appurtenant to his apartment.

V. Ninety-nine year lease. The Developer is the owner of all of the apartments subject to this Declaration of Condominium and all of said apartments are subject to a lease for the recreation area, which area has been leased to the Association, THE CLARIDGE OF POMPANO CONDOMINIUM, INC., a copy of said lease attached hereto as Exhibit E. The Association shall be responsible to see that the terms of said lease are complied with by all of the owners.

The ninety-nine year lease requires quarterly installment payment in advance to the Lessor and also contains a cost of living adjustment as fully set out therein. The rents to be paid by the Association shall be and do constitute a part of the common expense and shall be assessed against each condominium unit as provided for herein and by the terms of the lease.

Pursuant to the terms of the lease and as owner of all condominium units, the Developer hereby creates a lien against each condominium unit in THE CLARIDGE, a Condominium, in favor of the Lessor of the lease as security for the payment of the rents and any other sums or obligations required under the terms of the lease by the Association. Said lien shall be perfected and evidenced by the recording of a Claim of Lien against any such condominium unit in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida. The lien shall be binding upon the condominium unit owner and all parties having actual or constructive notice thereof. The lien may be enforced pursuant to all applicable provisions of the Florida Statutes.

The Developer acknowledges the provisions of paragraph 16 of the ninety-nine year lease, which provides for waiver of past due lease payments and abatement of these payments when title to the condominium unit vests in First Federal Savings and Loan Association of Broward County or such other lending institution to which Lessor has subordinated its lien herein created, whether said vesting be by foreclosure of a mortgage against the condominium unit or by acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure. In the event a condominium unit owner has failed to make a mortgage payment to an institutional lender having a first mortgage lien against the condominium unit to which the Lessor in the ninety-nine year lease has subordinated, and due to the abatement of any rental payments with respect to said condominium unit in the event of foreclosure or acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure by said institutional lender, to protect the Lessor's right to rental payments, the Lessor is hereby given the right to make such defaulted mortgage payments on behalf of the condominium unit owner and the same shall constitute a lien against the respective condominium unit to the same extent that there was a default in any other payment due under the terms of the ninety-nine year lease.

As additional security for the performance of the terms, covenants and conditions of the lease, in addition to the pledge of the Condominium Unit and all fixtures therein, the unit owner pledges with and assigns unto the Lessor all of the rents, issues and profits which might accrue unto the condominium unit owner for the use, enjoyment and operation of the said condominium apartment.

In the event, because of any condominium unit owner's default herein, Lessor shall institute foreclosure proceedings against said pledged condominium unit, the said unit owner shall pay to Lessor, in addition to the delinquent rental, attorney's fees and court costs reasonably incurred by Lessor in such foreclosure.

VI. Maintenance. The responsibility for the maintenance of the condominium property shall be as follows:

A. Apartments.

(1) By the Association.

(a) All portions of an apartment, except interior surfaces, contributing to the support of the apartment building, which portions shall include but not be limited to the outside walls of the apartment building, and all fixtures on the exterior thereof, boundary walls of apartments, floor and ceiling slabs, load-bearing columns and load-bearing walls.

(b) All conduits, ducts, plumbing, wiring and other facilities for the furnishing of utility services which are contained in the portion of the apartment contributing to the support of the building or within boundary walls; and all such facilities contained within an apartment which service part or parts of the condominium other than the apartment within which contained.

(c) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Declaration to the contrary, the Association, its contractors, agents and employees are not liable or responsible for any loss or damage to any decoration, finish, or personal property within the Apartment, or any modification, alteration, or addition to the Apartment made by the Apartment Owner, arising out of or concerning the maintenance, repair, replacement, or protection obligation of the Association or the obligation of the Association to repair or replace in the event of a casualty, unless the negligence or willful misconduct of the Association, its contractors, agents, or employees was the sole and direct cause of such loss or damage. In addition, the Association, its contractors, agents and employees are not liable or responsible for any loss or damage caused to an Apartment when the damages arise from the negligence or intentional misconduct of another Apartment Owner, the Owner's family, tenants, guests, or invitees.

(d) When an Apartment Owner has made a modification to the original, as-built plans of the Apartment, including, but not limited to, decorations to or finishes on walls, floors and ceilings, the Apartment Owner is responsible for the expense of removing and replacing such modifications when the removal of such modifications is reasonably necessary in order to maintain, repair, replace, or protect, or to repair or replace in the event of a casualty, the common elements, limited common elements, Association property, the Apartment, or other Apartments. In connection with the maintenance, repair, replacement and protection of the Condominium Property by the Association, any modification, alteration, or addition made by an Apartment Owner, including any wall, floor, or ceiling covering in the Apartment or Limited Common Elements, can be removed and reinstalled by the Association at the Apartment Owner's sole cost and expense, or alternatively, at the discretion of the Board, must be removed and/or reinstalled by the Apartment Owner at the Apartment Owner's sole cost and expense. In the event the Association removes and/or reinstalls any of the above-mentioned items, the Apartment Owner is obligated to reimburse the Association for any costs in connection with removal and/or reinstallation of the item. The costs incurred shall be deemed to be a special assessment against such unit and unit owner, collectible in the same fashion as any other assessment as provided in this Declaration. In the event the Association removes or reinstalls any of the above-mentioned items, the Association, its contractors, agents and employees, are not liable for any loss or damage to the above-mentioned items, unless the negligence or willful misconduct of the Association, its contractors, agents, or employees was the sole and direct cause of such loss or damage.

(2) By the apartment owner.

(a) To maintain, repair and replace at his expense all portions of his apartment except the portions to be maintained, repaired and replaced by the association. To also maintain and repair his balcony and terrace. Such shall be done without disturbing the rights of other apartment owners.

(b) Not to paint or otherwise decorate or change the appearance of any portion of the exterior of the apartment building, the windows or the balcony so as to have any one apartment appear in any way different from any other.

(c) To promptly report to the association any defect or need for repairs the responsibility for the remedying of which is that of the association.

(3) Alterations and improvements. No apartment owner shall make any alterations in the portions of the apartment and apartment building which are to be maintained by the association or remove any portion thereto, or do any work which would jeopardize the safety or soundness of the apartment building, or impair any easement, without first obtaining the approval of the Board of Directors of the Association.

B. Common Elements.

(1) By the Association. The maintenance and operation of the common elements shall be the responsibility and expense of the association.

The Association shall also maintain all areas leased to it for recreational or other purposes, whether the same are contiguous to the Condominium property or not, or whether the association retains said lease in its own name or subleases undivided percentages to the apartment owners in the Condominium.

(2) Alterations and improvements. After the completion of improvements included in the common elements, there shall be no alterations nor further improvements of real property constituting the common elements without first obtaining approval in writing of not less than 60% of the apartment owners. A disapproval vote by any apartment owner shall not relieve him of paying his proportionate share of the costs or assessments of the improvements once the appropriate percentage of approvals have been received by the Association. After such written approval, all apartment owners may be assessed their share of the costs thereof based upon the percentage share of the common elements.

VII. Assessments. Assessments against the apartment owners shall be made by the Association for the common expenses and shall be pursuant to the by-laws of the association and subject to the following provisions:

A. Share of common expenses. Each apartment owner shall be liable for a proportionate share of the common expenses, and shall share in the common surplus, such shares being the same as the undivided share in the common elements. The common expenses shall include but not be limited to the expenses of operation, maintenance, repair or replacement of the common elements, costs of carrying out the powers and duties of the association, costs of fire and extended coverage insurance, and other expenses designated or inferred to be a common expense in this Declaration of Condominium or by the by-laws of the association.

B. Interest. Assessments and installments thereon paid on or before ten days after the date when due shall not bear a late charge. All sums not paid on or before ten days after the date when due shall bear a late charge of $25.00 per month for any payment that arrives after the tenth day of the month in which it is due.

C. Lien for assessments. The lien for unpaid assessments shall also secure reasonable attorney fees incurred by the association incident to the collection of such assessment or enforcement of such lien.

D. Emergencies. Assessments for common expenses of emergencies which cannot be paid from the assessments for normal recurring expenses shall be made only after written notice of the need therefor to the apartment owners. After such notice, and upon approval in writing of more than one-half of the apartment owners, the assessment shall become effective and shall be due after thirty days' notice thereof in such manner as the Board of Directors of the association may require.

E. Rental pending foreclosure. In any foreclosure of a lien for assessments the owner of the apartment subject to the lien shall be required to pay a reasonable rental for the apartment, and the association shall be entitled to the appointment of a receiver to collect the same.

VIII. Association. The operation of the condominium shall be by THE CLARIDGE OF POMPANO CONDOMINIUM, INC., a corporation not for profit organized under the laws of the State of Florida, and shall be organized and fulfill its function as follows:

A. Articles of Incorporation. The association shall be incorporated under Articles of Incorporation, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit C. Any other form of organization for the association may be substituted upon the approval of 75% of the members thereof.

B. By-Laws. The by-laws of the association shall be in the form attached as Exhibit D until the same are amended in the manner provided by said by-laws.

C. Duties and powers. The duties and powers of the association shall be those set forth in the condominium documents together with those reasonably implied to effect the purposes of the association and condominium. Such powers and duties shall be exercised in the manner provided by the condominium documents.

D. Limitation of liability. Notwithstanding the duty of the association to maintain and repair parts of the condominium property, the association shall not be liable for injury or damage caused by the elements or other owners or persons.

E. Trusts. All funds and the title to all properties acquired by the association and the proceeds thereof shall be held only for the benefit of the apartment owners and for the purposes stated herein.

F. Restraint upon assignment. The share of a member in the funds and assets of the association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his apartment.

G. Voting. Each condominium parcel shall be entitled to one vote with respect to any affairs of THE CLARIDGE OF POMPANO CONDOMINIUM, INC., which require a vote, whether said condominium parcel is owned by an individual, more than one person as tenants in common or tenants by the entireties, or owned by a corporation. It is intended that there shall be one hundred ninety-eight (198) maximum votes on any given issue, that being one for each condominium parcel.

IX. Leasehold or membership interests. The association, in addition to all other powers granted to it herein and by the laws of the State of Florida, shall have the power to acquire and enter into agreements whereby it acquires leaseholds, memberships, or other possessory or use interests in land or facilities including but not limited to country clubs, golf courses, marinas and other recreational facilities, whether or not the same are contiguous to the lands of the condominium. The expenses of such rentals, membership fees, operations, replacements and other undertakings in connection therewith may be declared as common expenses as determined by the Board of Directors of the association.

X. Insurance. The insurance other than title insurance which shall be carried upon the condominium property and the property of the apartment owners shall be governed by the following provisions:

A. Purchase. The insurance policies upon the condominium property shall be purchased by the association through an agent having a place of business in Broward County, Florida, and shall be issued by an insurance company authorized to do business in Florida.

The Developer acknowledges the provisions of Paragraph 16 of the 99-year lease, which provide for waiver of past due lease payments and abatement of these payments when the title to the Condominium unit vests in a State of Florida or national banking institution, a federal savings and loan association or an insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Florida, either by foreclosure of a mortgage against a condominium unit or by acceptance of a deed in lieu of foreclosure of said unit.

B. Coverage.

(1) Casualty. The condominium building and common elements shall be insured in an amount equal to the maximum insurable replacement value, excluding foundation and excavation costs, as determined annually by the Board of Directors of the Association. The word "building" in every hazard policy issued to protect a condominium building does not include unit floor coverings, wall coverings, or ceiling coverings and, as to contracts entered into after July 1, 1992, does not include the following equipment if it is located within a unit and the unit owner is required to repair or replace such equipment; electrical fixtures, appliances, air conditioner or heating equipment, water heaters, built-in cabinets or any other item, personal property, fixture, appliance or equipment permitted to be excluded from the condominium's insurance policy pursuant to Florida Statute, Section 718.111(11), as same may be amended or renumbered from time to time. Such coverage shall afford protection against:

(a) Loss or damage by fire and other hazards covered by a standard extended coverage endorsement, and

(b) Such other risks as from time to time shall be customarily covered with respect to buildings similar in construction, location and use as the building on the land, including, but not limited to vandalism and malicious mischief.

(2) Public Liability. Such amounts and with such coverage as shall be required by the Board of Directors of the association, including but not limited to hired automobiles and non-owner automobile coverages, and with cross liability endorsement to cover liabilities of the apartment owners as a group to an apartment owner.

(3) Workmen's Compensation policy to meet the requirements of law.

(4) Such other insurance as the Board of Directors of the Association shall determine from time to time to be desirable.

C. Premiums. Premiums upon the insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be paid by the Association as a common expense.

D. Assured. All insurance policies purchased by the Association shall be for the benefit of the Association and the apartment owners and their mortgagees as their interest may appear, and shall provide that all proceeds covering property losses shall be paid to the Board of Directors of the Association.

(1) Common Elements. Proceeds on account of damage to common elements-an undivided share for each apartment owner, such share being the same as the undivided share in the common element appurtenant to his apartment.

(2) Apartments. Proceeds on account of apartments shall be held for the owners of damaged apartments in proportion to cost of repairing damage suffered by each apartment owner, which costs shall be determined by the Association.

(a) Total destruction of the building or when the building is not to be restored- for owners of apartments in the building, each owner(s) share being in proportion to his share in the common elements appurtenant to his apartment.

(3) Mortgagees. In the event a mortgagee endorsement has been issued as to an apartment, the share of the apartment owner shall be held in trust for the mortgagee and the apartment owner as their interests may appear; provided, however, that no mortgagee shall have any right to determine or participate in the determination as to whether or not any damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, and no mortgagee shall have any right to apply or have applied to the reduction of a mortgage debt any insurance proceeds except distributions of such proceeds made to the apartment owner and mortgagee pursuant to the provisions of this Declaration.

E. Distribution of proceeds. Proceeds of insurance policies shall be distributed to or for the benefit of the beneficial owners in the following manner:

(1) Reconstruction or repair. If the damage for which the proceeds are paid is to be repaired or reconstructed, the remaining proceeds shall be paid to defray the costs thereof as elsewhere provided. Any proceeds remaining after defraying such costs shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittances to apartment owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of an apartment and may be enforced by such mortgagee.

(2) Failure to reconstruct or repair. If it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the damage for which the proceeds are paid shall not be reconstructed or repaired, the remaining proceeds shall be distributed to the beneficial owners, remittances to apartment owners and their mortgagees being payable jointly to them. This is a covenant for the benefit of any mortgagee of an apartment and may be enforced by such mortgagee.

F. Association as agent. The Association is hereby irrevocably appointed agent for each apartment owner to adjust all claims arising under insurance policies purchased by the Association, and to execute and deliver releases upon the payment of claims.

G. Unit Owner Coverage; Personal Property and Liability. Upon the effective date of the amendment, all Unit Owners shall obtain insurance coverage at their own expense upon the property lying within the boundaries of their Unit, including, but not limited to, their personal property, as set forth in Section 718.111(11), Florida Statutes, as amended and/or renumbered from time to time, and include, but not limited to, floor, wall and ceiling coverings, electrical fixtures, appliances, water heaters, water filters or built-in cabinets and countertops, window treatments, including, without limitations, curtains, drapes, blinds, hardware, and similar window treatment components, or replacements of any of the foregoing, which are located within the boundaries of a Unit and serve only one Unit, and for their personal liability and living expense and for any other risks. Such insurance shall be obtained within sixty (60) days of the effective date of this amendment and a copy of such insurance policy shall be furnished to the Association upon request. Upon the failure of any Unit Owner to purchase and/or provide timely proof of the purchase of insurance, as required herein, the Association may bring legal action to enforce this requirement. Alternatively, if such option is available, the Association may, but is not obligated to, purchase such insurance coverage at the cost and expense of the Unit Owner. Any such expense shall be an individual special assessment against the Owner and Unit, and collectible in the same fashion as any other assessment, as provided hereunder.

XI. Reconstruction or repair after casualty.

A. Determination to reconstruct or repair. If any part of the condominium property shall be damaged by casualty, whether or not it shall be reconstructed or repaired shall be determined in the following manner:

(1) Common Element. If the damaged improvement is a common element, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, unless it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the condominium shall be terminated.

(2) Apartment Building.

(a) Lesser damage. If the damaged improvement is the apartment building, and if the apartments to which 50% of the common elements are appurtenant are found by the Board of Directors of the Association to be tenantable, the damaged property shall be reconstructed or repaired, unless within 60 days after the casualty it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided that the condominium shall be terminated.

(b) Major damage. If the damaged improvement is the apartment building, and if the apartments to which more than 50% of the common elements are appurtenant are found by the Board of Directors to be not tenantable, then the damaged property will not be reconstructed or repaired and the condominium will be terminated as elsewhere provided, unless within 60 days after the casualty the owners of 75% of the common elements agree in writing to such reconstruction or such repair.

(3) Plans and specification. Any such reconstruction or repair must be substantially in accordance with the plans and specifications for the original building or as the building was last reconstructed, or in accordance with plans and specifications approved by the Board of Directors of the Association, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

B. Responsibility. If the damage is only to those parts of one apartment for which the responsibility of maintenance and repair is that of the apartment owner, then the apartment owner shall be responsible for reconstruction and repair after casualty. In all other instances the responsibility of reconstruction and repair after casualty shall be that of the Association.

C. Estimates of costs. Immediately after a casualty causing damage to property for which the Association has the responsibility of maintenance and repair, the Association shall obtain reliable and detailed estimates of the cost to rebuild or repair so as to replace the damaged property in condition as good as that before the casualty.

D. Assessments. If the proceeds of insurance are not sufficient to defray the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair by the Association, assessments shall be made against the apartment owners who own the damaged property, and against all apartment owners in the case of damage to common elements, in sufficient amounts to provide funds to pay the estimated costs. If at any time during reconstruction and repair, the funds for the payment of the costs thereof are insufficient, assessments shall be made against the apartment owners who own the damaged property, and against all apartment owners in the case of damage to common elements, in sufficient amounts to provide funds for the payment of such costs. Such assessments against apartment owners for damage to apartments shall be in proportion to the cost of reconstruction and repair of their respective apartments. Such assessments on account of damage to common elements shall be in proportion to the owner's share in the common elements.

E. Construction funds. The funds for payment of costs of reconstruction and repair after casualty for which the Association is responsible, which shall consist of proceeds of insurance and funds collected by the Association from assessments against apartment owners, shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the manner:

(1) Association. The Association shall hold the sums paid upon such assessments and disburse the same in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair.

(2) Construction Fund. The proceeds of insurance collected on account of a casualty, and the sum from collection of assessments against apartment owners on account of such casualty, shall constitute a construction fund which shall be disbursed in payment of the costs of reconstruction and repair in the following manner:

(a) Apartment owner. The portion of insurance proceeds representing damage for which the responsibility of reconstruction and repair lies with the apartment owner shall be paid to the apartment owner, or if there is a mortgagee endorsement, then to the apartment owner and the mortgagee jointly, who may use such proceeds as they may be advised.

(b) Association-major damage. If the amount of the estimated costs of reconstruction and repair which is the responsibility of the Association is more than the total of the annual assessments for recurring expenses made during the year in which the casualty occurred, then the construction fund shall be disbursed in payment of such costs in the manner required by the Board of Directors of the Association, and upon approval of an architect qualified to practice in the State of Florida and employed by the Association to supervise the work.

(c) Surplus. It shall be presumed that the first monies disbursed in payment of costs of reconstruction and repair shall be from insurance proceeds; and if there is a balance in a construction fund after payment of all costs of the reconstruction and repair for which the fund is established, such balance shall be distributed to the apartment owners and their mortgagees, if any, who are the beneficial owners of the fund.

XII. Use Restrictions. The use of the property of the condominium shall be in accordance with the following provisions:

A. Apartments. Each Apartment must be occupied and used only for single family residential purposes, and not for business, commercial or other purposes, as a single-family private dwelling by the record owner or approved tenant and those persons who were to permanently occupy the Apartment with them and who were approved by the Board to reside in the Apartment at the time of the submission of the original application for sale, lease or other conveyance. "Members of the Immediate Family", which is defined as the spouse, life/domestic partner or significant other of the record owner, approved tenant or other permitted occupant, or the parent, grandparent, child, sibling or grandchild of the record owner, approved tenant or other permitted occupant, and the spouse, life/domestic partner or significant other of any of these, or any other person or persons, any time after the original approval, desiring permanent occupancy must be approved by the Board. Notwithstanding the above, no more than six (6) persons may reside overnight in an Apartment at any time.

B. Common elements. The common elements shall be used only for the purposes for which they are intended in the furnishing of services and facilities for the enjoyment of the apartments.

C. Nuisances. No nuisances shall be allowed upon the condominium property, nor any use or practice which is the source of annoyance to residents and which interferes with the peaceful possession and proper use of the property by its residents. All parts of the property shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition, and no rubbish, refuse or garbage allowed to accumulate, nor any fire hazard allowed to exist.

D. Lawful Use. No immoral, improper, offensive, or unlawful use shall be made of the condominium property nor any part thereof; and all valid laws, zoning ordinances and regulations of all governmental bodies having jurisdiction over the subject property shall be observed. The responsibility of meeting the requirements of governmental bodies which require maintenance, modification or repair of condominium property shall be the same as the responsibilities for the maintenance and repair of the property concerned.

E. Leasing. Entire apartments may be leased provided the occupancy is only by the lessee and his or her family, but the leasing thereof is subject to the approval by the Association as hereinafter set forth. No rooms may be rented and no transient tenants accommodated. Sub-leasing is strictly prohibited. Tenants in residence may have guests, including family members, no longer than sixty (60) days in the aggregate during any lease term, and must provide notice to the Association Office a minimum of three (3) business days prior to the Guest's arrival. Notwithstanding the above, any occupancy by a guest of a tenant in residence, for more than thirty (30) days in the aggregate in any calendar year, shall be deemed to be a lease, regardless of whether consideration is paid. In such event, that individual must submit the required application for approval, and be approved for occupancy beyond the initial thirty (30) days, as provided in Article XIII herein, prior to their thirtieth (30th) day in occupancy, in order to remain in residence. Tenants are not permitted to have overnight guests, including family members, occupy the Apartment in the absence of the tenant.

F. Regulations. Reasonable regulations concerning the use of the condominium property may be made and amended from time to time by the Association in the manner provided for in its Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws. Copies of such regulations and amendments thereto shall be furnished by the Association to all apartment owners and residents of the condominium upon request.

G. Guest Occupancy. For purposes of this section, "Guests" shall include any person other than the Apartment owner, approved tenant and those persons who were approved to permanently reside in the Apartment with them at the time of the submission of the original application for sale, lease or other conveyance, whether or not the Apartment owner is present in the Apartment, or whether any consideration is paid for such occupancy.

All Guests must abide by the following:

1. Guests staying overnight must sign in at the security desk and register their vehicles.
2. Guests, or the Owner with whom they are visiting, are required to notify security staff at the time of the Guest's departure.

Additionally:

- (1) Owner, in Residence: A Guest shall be permitted to occupy an Apartment no longer than sixty (60) days in the aggregate in any calendar year without approval of the Board. Any further occupancy shall be deemed to be a lease, regardless of whether consideration is paid. In such event, that individual must submit the required application for approval, and be approved for occupancy, as provided in Article XIII herein, in order to remain in residence beyond the sixty (60) days. An Apartment owner must notify the Association, in writing, of any guest which will occupy a unit longer than sixty (60) days.

- (2) Owner NOT in residence: Other than the Members of the Immediate family, as defined in Section A above, an Owner NOT in residence may be permitted to have Guests occupy the unit, but for no longer than sixty (60) days in the aggregate for all guests in any calendar year. Notwithstanding the above, any occupancy of a guest of an owner not in residence, who is not a Member of the Immediate Family, for more than thirty (30) days in the aggregate in any calendar year shall be deemed to be a lease, regardless of whether consideration is paid. In such event, that individual must submit the required application for approval, and be approved for occupancy beyond the initial thirty (30) days, as provided in Article XIII herein, prior to their thirtieth (30th) day in occupancy, in order to remain in residence. Any guest of an owner not in residence, who is a Member of the Immediate Family, may occupy the Apartment for an unlimited amount time. However, any occupancy by such Member of the Immediate Family for more than sixty (60) days in the aggregate in any calendar year shall be deemed to be a lease, regardless of whether consideration is paid. In such event, that individual must submit the required application for approval, and be approved for occupancy beyond the initial thirty (60) days, as provided in Article XIII herein, prior to their sixtieth (60th) day in occupancy, in order to remain in residence. An Apartment owner must notify the Association Office, in writing, of any guest which will occupy the unit and the length of time each guest shall be in occupancy a minimum of three (3) business days prior to the Guest's arrival. The approvals required herein must be obtained by the guest each calendar year.

All guests must abide by the same covenants, rules and regulations of the condominium in effect for residents and owners and owners should advise their guests that their stay will be terminated if any of the rules or regulations are violated. To the extent provided by law, such Apartment owner shall be responsible for the acts and omissions, whether negligent or willful, of his/her guests residing in his or her Apartment, and in the event the acts or omissions of any of the foregoing shall result in any damage to the Common Elements or Condominium Property, or any liability to the Association, the Apartment owner shall be liable to the Association for same.

Furthermore, any violation of any of the provisions of this Declaration, of the Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws, or any Rule or Regulation, by any Guest shall also be deemed a violation by the Apartment owner, and shall subject the Apartment owner to the same liability as if such violation was that of the Apartment owner.

Any charges against the Apartment owner pursuant to this Section, including, but not limited to, attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Association in seeking compliance with this Article and/or Association Rules and Regulations as they may be amended from time to time, regardless of whether litigation is necessary to obtain compliance, shall be deemed to be a special assessment against the Apartment and Apartment owner, collectible in the same fashion as any other assessment as provided in this Declaration.

With respect to any Guests of an Apartment owner and tenant(s) under an approved lease, or other Apartment occupants, present in any Apartment or any portion of the Common Elements or Condominium Property, if such person shall materially violate any provision of this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws, or the Rules and Regulations, or shall create a nuisance or an unreasonable and continuous source of annoyance to the residents of the Condominium, or shall damage or destroy any Common Elements or Condominium Property, then upon written notice by the Association such person shall be required to immediately and permanently leave the unit or Common Elements or Condominium Property and if such person does not do so, the Association is authorized to commence an action to compel the person to permanently leave the unit or Common Elements or Condominium Property and, where necessary, to enjoin such person from returning. All such actions by the Association are as agent of the unit owner. The expense of any such action, including, without limitation, attorneys' fees and costs incurred by the Association in seeking compliance with this Article and/or Association Rules and Regulations, as they all may be amended from time to time, regardless of whether litigation is necessary to obtain compliance, may be charged to the applicable unit owner whom such person was visiting, or with whose permission such person was present at the Apartment or Common Elements or Condominium Property, and the expense of which shall be deemed to be a special assessment against such Apartment and Apartment owner, collectible in the same fashion as any other Assessment as provided in this Declaration. The foregoing shall not be deemed to limit, modify, or affect any other rights or remedies available to the Association, or any rights or remedies the Association may have with respect to similar actions by an Apartment owner or a member of his/her family residing with him/her in the Apartment.

The Board may promulgate such rules, policies and procedures as are necessary to implement this Article.

XIII. Sale, rental, lease or transfer of interest. In order to assure and maintain a community of congenial residents and thus protect the value of the apartments, the sale, leasing and mortgaging of apartments by owners shall be subject to the following provisions so long as the condominium exists:

A. Transfer subject to approval.

(1) Sale or lease. No apartment owner may dispose of an apartment or any interest therein by sale or lease without approval of the Association except to an apartment owner.

(2) Gift, devise or inheritance. If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by gift, devise or inheritance, the continuance of his ownership of his apartment shall be subject to the approval of the Association.

(3) Other Transfers. If any apartment owner shall acquire his title by any manner not set forth in the above subsections, the continuance of his ownership of said apartment shall be subject to the approval of the Association.

B. Approval by Association. In the event the approval of the Association is required for the transfer of ownership of apartments the same shall be obtained in the following manner:

(1) Notice to Association.

(a) Sale or lease. An apartment owner intending to make a bona fide sale or lease of his apartment or any interest therein shall give the Association notice of such intention, together with the name and address of the intended purchaser or lessee and such other information covering the intended purchaser or lessee as the Association may reasonably require; and in the case of a purchase copy of the executed contract of sale; and in the case of a lease an executed copy of the proposed lease. In the event that the transfer is by sale the apartment owner may, at his option, include in his notice to the Association a demand that the Association furnish a purchaser if the proposed purchaser is not approved.

(b) Gift, devise or inheritance, or other transfers. If an apartment owner has obtained title to his apartment by gift, devise, inheritance or other manner not specifically set out herein, he shall give the Association notice of the acquiring of his title, together with such information concerning the apartment owner as the Association may reasonably require, and a certified copy of the instrument evidencing the said owner's title.

(c) Failure to give notice. If the notice to the Association as required herein is not given, then at any time after receiving knowledge of a transaction or event which transfers ownership or possession of an apartment, the Association at its election, and without notice, may approve or disapprove the transaction or ownership. If the Association disapproves the transaction or ownership, the Association shall proceed as if it had received the required notice on the date of such disapproval.

(2) Certificate of approval. If the proposed transaction is a sale or lease, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of the notice and information by the Association, the transaction must be either approved or disapproved by the Association. In the event the notice is by an apartment owner giving notice of the acquiring of his title by gift, devise, inheritance or other manner, then the Association shall also have thirty (30) days after the receipt of such notice and information to approve or disapprove the apartment owner's ownership in his apartment. If the Association approves the sale or lease or continuance of the apartment owner's ownership of his apartment it shall evidence the same by a certificate executed by the President and Secretary and it shall be in recordable form and delivered to the purchaser, lessee or new apartment owner and the same shall be recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida.

(3) Approval of Non-Natural Owner, Purchaser or Lessee. In conjunction with the approval process provided herein, any sale, transfer, or lease of an apartment shall be restricted to natural persons only. Any sale, transfer, or rental of an apartment to an artificial or fictitious person, with the term "artificial or fictitious person" to be defined herein to include, but not be limited to, a corporate entity, a general or limited partnership, a limited liability partnership, or a limited liability company, is prohibited. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained herein, record title to a apartment may be held in the name of a Trust, whereby occupancy of the apartment is only by the trustee and/or the beneficiaries under the Trust, or a tenant who has been previously approved by the Association. The approval of the Board is required for any Trust. In order to obtain such approval, the current owner must submit an application to the Association containing such information as required by the Board, which must include a copy of the Trust document under which title is to be held. Once approved, any change in the Trust document must be filed with the Association. The foregoing Section shall not apply to any apartment owned by the Association.

C. Disapproval by Association. If the Association shall disapprove a transfer or ownership of an apartment, the matter shall be disposed of in the following manner:

(1) Sale. If the proposed transaction is a sale and if the notice of a sale given by the apartment owner shall so demand, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of such notice and information the Association shall furnish a purchaser approved by the Association who will purchase and to whom the apartment owner must sell the apartment upon the following terms:

(a) The purchase price to be paid by the purchaser shall be the fair market value determined by agreement, and in the absence of agreement by arbitration in accordance with the then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two appraisers appointed by said Association who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the apartment; and a judgment of specific performance upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in a court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be paid by the purchaser.

(b) The purchase price shall be paid in cash and the sale shall be closed within thirty (30) days after the approval of the purchaser by the Association, or within ten (10) days after the determination of the sale price after the same is determined by arbitration, whichever is later.

(c) If the Association shall fail to provide a purchaser upon the demand of the apartment owner in the manner provided, then the proposed transaction shall be deemed to have been approved and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided.

(2) Lease. If the proposed transaction is a lease, and the owner is advised of the disapproval of the lease in writing by the Association, then the lease shall not be made.

(3) Gifts, devise or inheritance, other transfers. Upon the apartment owner giving notice to the Association of his acquiring title to his apartment by gift, devise or inheritance, or in any other manner, then within thirty (30) days after receipt of the notice and information required to be furnished, the Association shall deliver to the apartment owner an offer to purchase by a purchaser approved by the Association who will purchase and to whom the apartment owner must sell the apartment upon the following terms:

(a) The sale price shall be the fair market value determined by agreement and in the absence of agreement by arbitration in accordance with the existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two appraisers appointed by said Association who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the apartment; and a judgment of specific performance upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of arbitration shall be paid by the purchaser.

(b) The purchase price shall be paid in cash and the same shall be closed within ten (10) days following the determination of the sale price.

(c) If the Association shall disapprove the continuance of the apartment owner's ownership of his apartment, but shall fail to provide a purchaser as herein above required, then notwithstanding the disapproval such ownership shall be deemed to have been approved and the Association shall furnish a certificate of approval as elsewhere provided.

D. Mortgage. No apartment owner may mortgage his apartment nor any interest therein without the approval of the Association except to a bank, life insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Florida or a Federal savings and loan association. The approval of any other mortgagee may be upon conditions determined by the Association or may be arbitrarily withheld.

E. Unauthorized transactions. Any sale, mortgage or lease which is not authorized pursuant to the terms of this declaration shall be void unless subsequently approved in writing by the Association.

F. Liens.

(1) Protection of property. All liens against an apartment other than those provided for herein and those for permitted mortgages, taxes or special assessments will be satisfied or otherwise removed within thirty (30) days from the date the lien attaches. All taxes and special assessments upon an apartment shall be paid before becoming delinquent.

(2) Notice of lien. An apartment owner shall give notice to the Association in writing of every lien upon his apartment other than those for permitted mortgages, taxes and special assessments, within five (5) days after attaching of the lien.

(3) Notice of suit. An apartment owner shall give notice to the Association of every suit or other proceeding which may affect the title to his apartment, such notice to be given in writing within five (5) days after the date the apartment owner receives knowledge thereof.

(4) Failure to comply with this section concerning liens will not affect the validity of any judicial sale.

G. Judicial sales. No judicial sale of an apartment nor any interest therein shall be valid unless the sale is to a purchaser approved by the Association, which approval shall be in recordable form and shall be delivered to the purchaser and recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida; or the sale is a public sale with open bidding.

H. Exceptions.

(1-a) Mortgage Transfers. None of the provisions of this Section XIII shall apply to a transfer or purchase by a bank, life insurance company authorized to do business in the State of Florida or a Federal savings and loan association which acquires its title as a result of owning a mortgage upon the apartment concerned and this shall be so whether the title is acquired by deed from the mortgagor in lieu of foreclosure or through foreclosure proceedings.

(1-b) Where the Mortgagee of an Institutional First Mortgage of record, or other purchaser of a Condominium unit, obtains title to a Condominium parcel as a result of foreclosure of the Institutional First Mortgage, or when an Institutional First Mortgagee of record accepts a Deed to said Condominium parcel in lieu of foreclosure, such acquirer of title, its successors and assigns, shall not be liable for the shares of common expenses or assessment by the Management Firm or the Association pertaining to such Condominium parcel, or chargeable to the former unit owner of such parcel, which became due prior to acquisition of title as a result of the foreclosure or the acceptance of such Deed in lieu of foreclosure. Such unpaid share of common expenses or assessments shall be deemed to be common expenses collectible from all of the unit owners, including such acquirer, his successors and assigns.

(1-c) Any person who acquires an interest in a unit except through foreclosure of an Institutional First Mortgage of record, as specifically provided hereinabove including, without limitation, persons acquiring title by operation of law, including purchasers at judicial sales, shall not be entitled to occupancy of the unit or enjoyment of the common elements until such time as all unpaid assessments due and owing by the former unit owners have been paid. The Management Firm, as long as the Management Agreement remains in effect, and thereafter, the Association, acting through its Board of Directors, shall have the right to assign its claim and lien rights for the recovery of any unpaid assessments to the Developer, or to any unit owner or group of unit owners, or to any third party.

(2) Provisions pertaining to Developer.

(a) For so long as the Developer owns any apartments neither the apartment owner nor the Association nor the use of the condominium property shall interfere with the Developer's disposition of the apartments.

(b) Until such time as the Developer has sold all of the apartments in the condominium building or until the 1st day of May, 1975, whichever event shall occur first, a majority of the Board of Directors of the Association shall be selected by the Developer and such members as may be selected by the Developer need not be residents in the apartment building.

(c) The Developer hereby reserves the exclusive option for so long as it may deem expedient to provide to the Association for the benefit of its members, whether directly or through the Developers the ground maintenance, the maintenance of the recreational area, lawn and garden service and other facilities in and about the operation of the condominium and recreational area. A sum to be determined by the Board of Directors and assessed against each apartment on a regular monthly basis shall be included in the yearly assessment to pay for the maintenance services performed by the Developer.

XIV. Compliance and default. Each apartment owner shall be governed by and shall comply with the terms of the condominium documents and regulations adopted pursuant thereto and said documents and regulations as they may be amended from time to time. A default shall entitle the Association or other apartment owners to the following relief:

A. Legal proceedings. Failure to comply with any of the terms of the condominium documents and regulations adopted pursuant thereto shall be grounds for relief, which relief may include but shall not be limited to an action to recover sums due for damages or injunction relief, or both, and which actions may be maintained by the Association or in a proper case by an aggrieved apartment owner.

B. Negligence. An apartment owner shall be liable for the expense of any maintenance, repair or replacement rendered necessary by his act, neglect or carelessness or by that of any member of his family or his or their guests, employees, agents or lessees. Such liability shall include any increase in fire insurance rates occasioned by use, misuse, occupancy or abandonment of an apartment or its appurtenances. Any costs incurred by the Association rendered necessary due to either: a) the act, neglect, or carelessness of any apartment owner, or the tenant, guest, or invitee of an apartment owner; or, b) a violation of this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws and/or the Rules of the Association by an apartment owner, or the tenant, guest, or invitee of an apartment owner, including, without limitation, the failure or an apartment owner to maintain his or her apartment as required in Article VI, as amended, of this Declaration, shall be deemed to be a special assessment against the apartment owner and his or her apartment, collectible in the same fashion as any other assessment provided for in this Declaration.

C. Costs and attorney's fees. In any proceeding arising because of an alleged default by an apartment owner, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover the costs of the proceeding and such reasonable attorney fees as may be awarded by the court, and in any supplemental proceedings and appellant proceedings pursuant thereto, the prevailing party shall be entitled to attorney's fees for said proceedings subsequent to final judgment as the appropriate judicial body may award. In the event that the Association is required to engage the services of an attorney to seek enforcement of the provisions of this Declaration, the Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws and/or the Rules of the Association, and the apartment owner, or his or her tenant or guest, complies with the requirements subsequent to attorney involvement, the Association shall be entitled to reimbursement of its costs and attorney's fees incurred to bring about the compliance, from the apartment owner, regardless of whether litigation is necessary for the enforcement. The costs and attorney's fees so incurred to bring about compliance, or to obtain a judgment should litigation be necessary, shall be deemed to be a special assessment against the apartment unit and shall be collectible in the same fashion as any other assessment as provided for in this Declaration.

D. Nonwaiver. The failure of the Association or any apartment owner to enforce any covenant, restriction or other provision of the condominium documents shall not constitute a waiver of the right to do so thereafter.

E. Fines. In addition to the remedies available elsewhere in the Declaration of Condominium, the Bylaws, Articles of Incorporation, and Rules and Regulations of the Association (hereinafter Governing Documents), the Association can levy and collect fines against an Apartment and an Apartment Owner, as set forth in Section 718.303, F.S., for the failure of the Apartment Owner or the Apartment Owner's family, or the occupant, tenant, licensee, invitee, or guest of any of the foregoing, to comply with any provision of Chapter 718, Florida Statutes (hereinafter Condominium Act), or the Governing Documents, all as same may be amended from time to time.

(1) Contribution or Indemnity. Nothing herein interferes with any right that an Apartment Owner has to obtain payment from a violator in the amount of any fine or fines assessed against that Apartment Owner or that owner's Apartment.

(2) Rights Cumulative. Nothing herein is a prohibition of or a limitation on the right of the Association to pursue other means to enforce the provisions of the Governing Documents or Condominium Act, and all rights and remedies of the Association are cumulative and not exclusive.

XV. Amendments. This Declaration of Condominium may be amended in the following manner:

A. Notice. Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment shall be included in the notice of any meeting at which the proposed amendment is considered.

B. Resolution. A resolution for the adopting of a proposed amendment may be proposed by either the Board of Directors of the Association or by the apartment owners meeting as members of the Association. Directors and members not present by person or by proxy at the meetings considering the amendment may express their approval in writing, provided such approval is delivered to the Secretary at or prior to the meeting. The adoption and approval of the proposed amendments must be by the affirmative vote of not less than 60% of the votes of the entire membership of the Association.

C. Recording. A copy of each amendment shall be certified by the officers of the Association as having been duly adopted and shall be effective when recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida.

D. Proviso. Provided, however, that no amendment of any condominium document shall discriminate against any apartment owner nor against apartment or class or group of apartments unless the apartment owners so affected shall consent.

XVI. Termination. The condominium may be terminated in the following manner in addition to the manner provided by the Condominium Act.

A. Destruction. In the event it is determined in the manner elsewhere provided herein that the apartment building shall not be reconstructed after casualty, the condominium plan of ownership will be thereby terminated.

B. Agreement. The condominium may be terminated by the approval in writing of all of the owners of the condominium. If the proposed termination is submitted to a meeting of the members of the Association, the notice of which meeting gives notice of the proposed termination, and if the approval of the owners of not less than 75% of the common elements is obtained within 30 days from the date of such meetings, then the approving owners shall have an option to buy all of the apartments of the other owners for the period ending on the 60th day from the date of such meeting. Such option shall be upon the following terms:

(1) Exercise of option. The option shall be exercised by delivery or mailing by registered mail to each of the record owners of the apartments to be purchased of an offer to purchase signed by the record owners of apartments who will participate in the purchase. Such offer will indicate which apartments will be purchased by each participating owner and shall offer to purchase all of the apartments owned by owners not approving the termination, but the offer shall affect a separate contract between each seller and his purchaser.

(2) Price. The sale price for each apartment shall be the fair market value determined by agreement between the seller and purchaser within 30 days from the delivery or mailing of such offer, and in the absence of agreement by arbitration in accordance with then existing rules of the American Arbitration Association, except that the arbitrators shall be two appraisers appointed by the American Arbitration Association who shall base their determination upon an average of their appraisals of the apartment; and a judgment of specific performance of the sale upon the award rendered by the arbitrators may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction. The expense of the arbitration shall be paid by the purchaser.

(3) Payment and closing. The purchase price shall be paid in cash and shall be closed within ten (10) days following the determination of the sale price.

C. Certificate. The termination of the condominium in either of the foregoing manners shall be evidenced by a certificate of the Association executed by the President and Secretary certifying as to facts effecting the termination, which certificate shall become effective upon being recorded in the Public Records of Broward County, Florida.

D. Shares of owners after termination. After termination of the condominium the apartment owners shall own the condominium property and all assets of the Association as tenants in common in undivided shares, and their respective mortgagees and lienors shall have mortgages and liens upon the respective undivided shares of the apartment owners. Such undivided shares of the apartment owners shall be the same as the undivided shares in the common elements appurtenant to the owners' apartments prior to the termination.

XVII. Covenants running with the land. All provisions of the condominium documents shall be constructed to be covenants running with the land, and with every part thereof and interest therein, including but not limited to every apartment and appurtenances thereto; and every apartment and claimant of the land or any part thereof or interest therein, and his heirs, executors, administrators, successors and assigns shall be bound by all of the provisions of the condominium documents. Said covenants shall cease to run with the land only if the condominium is terminated pursuant to the provisions provided for termination contained in this Declaration or terminated by judicial decree.

XVIII. Apartment transfers. Any transfer of apartment shall include all appurtenances thereto whether or not specifically described, including but not limited to the apartment owner's share in the common elements, easements, association membership and interest in funds or assets held by the Association.

XIX. Severability. The invalidity of any covenant, restriction or other provision of the condominium documents or portions thereof shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions thereof.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Developer has executed this Declaration the day and year first above written.

1. The offices of the Association shall be at 1340 South Ocean Boulevard, Pompano Beach, Florida.
2. The fiscal year of the Association shall be the calendar year.
3. The seal of the corporation shall bear the name of the corporation, the word "Florida", the words "Corporation not for profit" and the year of incorporation.

II. MEMBERS.

1. The Annual Members' Meeting shall be held at the office of the Corporation or at such other place as is designated by the Board of Directors, at 7:00 o'clock, P.M., on the second Tuesday in the month of February of each year, for the purpose of electing Directors and of transacting any other business authorized to be transacted by the Members, provided, however, if that day is a legal holiday, the meeting shall be held at the same hour on the next succeeding day.

2. Special members' meetings shall be held whenever called by the President or Vice President or by a majority of the Board of Directors, and must be called by such officers upon receipt of a written request from one-third of the entire membership.

3. Notice of all members' meetings stating the time and place and the objects for which the meeting is called shall be given by the President or Vice President or Secretary unless waived in writing. When a quorum is present at any such meeting, the holders of a majority of the voting rights present in person or represented by written proxy shall decide any question brought before the meeting, unless the question is one upon which by expressed provision of the statutes, the Declaration of Condominium, or of the By-Laws a different vote is required, in which case such expressed provision shall govern and control the decision of such question. The joinder of a member in the action of a meeting by signing and concurring in the minutes therefore shall constitute a presence of such member for the purpose of determining a quorum.

5. The vote of the owners of an apartment owned by more than one person or by a corporation or other entity shall be cast by the person named on a certificate signed by all of the owners of the apartment and in the case of a corporation or similar entity signed by the President and Secretary thereof and filed with the Secretary of the Association. Such certificate shall be valid until revoked by a subsequent certificate. If such a certificate is not on file the vote of such owners shall not be considered in determining the requirements for a quorum nor for any other purposes.

6. Proxies. Votes may be cast in person or by proxy. Proxies shall be valid for only the particular meeting designated thereon and must be filed with the Secretary before the appointed time of the meeting.

7. Approval or disapproval of an apartment owner upon any matter, whether or not the subject of an Association meeting, shall be by the same person who would cast the vote of such owner if in an Association meeting.

1. The Board of Directors shall consist of seven (7) persons who shall serve staggered terms of two (2) years. Each member of the Board of Directors shall be the owner of an apartment.

2. Election of Directors shall be conducted in the following manner:

(a) Members of the Board of Directors up for re-election in a given year shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast at the annual meeting of the members of the Association.

(b) Vacancies in the Board of Directors may be filled until the date of the next annual meeting by the remaining Directors.

3. At the first election meeting following the adoption of this Amendment, the four (4) Directors receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected for a term of two (2) years and the three (3) Directors receiving the fifth, sixth and seventh highest number of votes shall be elected for a term of one (1) year. Thereafter, the term of each Director's service shall be for two

(2) years, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified or he is removed in the manner elsewhere provided herein.

4. The organization meeting of a newly-elected Board of Directors shall be held within ten (10) days of their election at such place and time as shall be fixed by the Directors at the meeting at which they were elected, and no further notice of the organization meeting shall be necessary providing a quorum shall be present.

5. Regular monthly meetings of the Board of Directors shall be held at such time and place as shall be determined by a majority of the Board. Notice of such regular meetings shall be given to each Director personally or by mail, telephone or telegraph at least seven days prior to the date named for such meeting unless such notice is waived. Special meetings may be held from time to time as deemed necessary.

6. Special meetings of the Directors may be called by the President and must be called by the Secretary at the written request of one-third of the votes of the Board. Not less than three days' notice of the meeting shall be given personally or by mail or telegraph, which notice shall state the time, place and purpose of the meeting, unless such notice is waived by said Directors in writing before or after the meeting, and such waiver shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of notice.

7. A quorum of Directors' meetings shall consist of the Directors entitled to cast a majority of the votes of the entire Board. The acts of the Board approved by a majority of votes present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall constitute the acts of the Board of Directors, except as specifically otherwise provided in the Declaration of Condominium. If at any meeting of the Board of Directors there be less than a quorum present, the majority of those present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present. At an adjourned meeting any business which might have been transacted at the meetings as originally called may be transacted without further notice. The joinder of a Director in the action of a meeting by signing a concurrence in the minutes thereof shall constitute the presence of such Director for the purpose of determining a quorum.

8. The presiding officer of Directors' meetings shall be the Chairman of the Board, if such an officer has been elected, and if none, then the President shall preside. In the absence of the presiding officer, the Directors present shall designate one of their number to preside.
